

What is 'self'? — defining SRK alleles through the lock-and-key resolution hierarchy

Answering this question is the LINCHPIN: it defines the number of SRK alleles in the population and, through it, the species' breeding system and its self-incompatibility status at the population level.

When are two SRK proteins different enough to switch the response from SI to SC?

SI MECHANISM

LEVEL 1

LEVEL 2

LEVEL 3

LEVEL 4

